WOODSMAN SPARE THAT TREE, is the sentiment of many who were contacted relative to the removal of the pepper tree in front of the News office. Others say, "take it out," progress must have its way. The Chamber of Commerce was asked by the City, to make a survey and report back to them. The report has been made, the fate of the 20-year-old pepper tree now lays in the lap of the City Council.

Report to City

C of C Makes Pepper Tree Survey

"Woodman, spare that tree!
Touch not a single bough!
In youth it sheltered me
And I'll protect it now."

The sentimentality expressed in this famous poem by George Pope Morris appears to be coming to the defense of the well-known pepper tree at the curb on Kersting Court. Practicality has been ruled out—even an extra parking spot—better lighting which would eliminate a dark spot if the tree were removed—better growth of the Indian Laurels—all in favor of the love of a tree.

With the new street lights now being installed in the business section of Sierra Madre, it quickly became apparent that one famous landmark—a pepper tree on Kersting Court—would cause a dark spot—the shadow of a tree, City Administrator Lawrence Bevington wrote to the Chamber of Commerce for advice. The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors then authorized President John H. Curtis to appoint a committee to appraise the situation. This was done, with Sterling Ripple as committee chairman.

A careful survey was made. Nearly everybody interviewed loves the old pepper tree. Practical considerations don't seem to count for much, reported Chairman Ripple, compared to the love of a tree. Those who favor removal of the tree were badly outvoted. The recommendation to the City Administrator will be that the tree remains. All of which leads us to another famous poem, Trees, by Joyce Kilmer, which was recently set to music, and which includes the well-known lines:

"Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree!"

Lee Shippey Writes On Doctors

I'm sorry the Gildarts are moving away from Sierra Madre. What grand old arguments Col. Gildart and I used to have in print! Each of us thought the other was completely misguided politically and fired volley after volley of logic at his opponent, yet I always respected and admired the Colonel, and I rather think he thought well of me, too.

In this campaign year, when already a good many acrimonious charges have been hurled by persons who put their partisanship or personal ambitions above their Americanism, it is encouraging to remember those "debates." I barely knew Col. Gildart when they began but grew very friendly as they progressed.

And I'm happy to read that Edward Voorhees is home from hospital after an eye operation which promises almost perfect vision soon. I know how greedy "the Professor" needs his eyes, for study, writing and friendly service have made up his life. Indeed, there have been a number of years when, if anyone had thought of it, Professor Ed might well have been voted Sierra Madre's most ingratiating citizen. But he lived with such quiet benignity that none of us ever thought of it.

If memory serves me correctly, there used to be a California law setting a ceiling of $50 on a doctor's fee—turn to page three

Sierra Madre Estates Near Completion

Sierra Madre Estates, a group of 12 of the finest homes to be erected in the city are now reaching the point of completion. New home owners will start moving into the area around the fifteenth of this month. H. H. Shapiro of the Tri-City Realty states that there are still one or two homes in this preferred section, that they will allow limited selection of colors and work. If interested in the purchase of a new home, it is suggested that you look up the detailed explanation elsewhere in this issue and hustle to Toyon Road and have a talk with Mr. Shapiro.

Although some difficulty was evidenced at the start of this construction project, Art Shapiro, builder states that we have met all the qualifications that have been laid down to us, and have gone many, many steps further. Truthfully he states, "Sierra Madre Estates, is listed among our better homes, we have gone all out to make Sierra Madreams proud of this section."

These homes are "choice," panoramic view with 12 distinctive exteriors, with a choice of 3 bedroom or 2 bedrooms and a den.

One of the most outstanding offers being made by Tri-City Realty and Mr. Shapiro is the Trade-in Plan. Trade your home for one in the beauty section of Sierra Madre. A sell-out is expected within days.

On Order of P.U.C.

Telephone Rates To Be Reduced July 22

The State Public Utilities Commission today ordered a $5-a-month across-the-board reduction in "foreign exchange" telephone rates in the Monrovia and Sierra Madre exchanges of California Water and Telephone Company on and after July 22.

Foreign exchange service gives a subscriber a larger toll-free calling area at a higher basic rate. The reduction will affect more than 400 present subscribers of California Water and Telephone Company in Arcadia, Monrovia, Sierra Madre and the Hastings Ranch section of Pasadena. Pacific Telephone Company subscribers will not be affected. The new rates in the area are on a comparable level with those of Pacific Telephone.

Under the order, residence individual-line foreign exchange service rates were reduced from $12.20 to $7.20 a month, including the initial mileage charge. Foreign exchange service for two-party lines were lowered from $10.90 to $5.90 a month, including the initial mileage increment.

Individual-line business foreign exchange rates, including the initial mileage charge, were reduced from $22.60 to $17.60 a month, and the PBX (private board exchange) rate from $28.85 to $23.85. Additional PBX

Eaton Saves Council From Costly Decision

The regular meeting of the City Council started out to be one that had the atmosphere of being cool, calm and collected, with all councilmen present except Councilman Abernethy. City Attorney Martin, City Administrator Bevington, City Clerk Warfel all at their respective posts.

After the regular opening of the meeting and the paying of $38,369.23 in warrants and presentation of the Treasurer's report, a public hearing was called for the forming of Sewer District No. 78.

All Liens Paid
Mrs. Wiggins of the Home Mutual Savings and Loan office, by request, explained that all property must have sewer assessments, if there are any, paid in full at the time the property is sold. The reason for this is that a lending agency always takes a first mortgage and this requires that all liens be satisfied.

Dist. 78 Formed

The petition of the property owners, by area, showed that 70 percent had signed, there being 14 homes in the district, two already connected and 12 concerned with the district formation. Noren Eaton, requested from the floor, that since Mayor Vannier was involved in this district he should be removed from the chair. By courtesy this was done and Councilman Sorensen took over as Chairman.

It was explained that the engineers estimated cost of the district would be $9,700 and that the policy of the council was not to allow the work done in the event the construction costs only, exceeded the estimate by more than 10 percent. A resolution was then adopted overruling all protests and objections, both written and oral, and further a Resolution was adopted ordering the work and calling for bids.

'Stinkie' at Church of Nazarene Bldg.

A problem has been created by a family of skunks staying underneath Sierra Madre's Church of the Nazarene building at 191 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., it was reported Tuesday by Edwin Erb of 154 W. Montecito in Sierra Madre.

The skunks, according to Erb, besides causing and spreading odors, have made themselves unwelcome guests at nearby residences at night by getting under houses and by taking advantage of the dichondra lawns and bushes.

These unwelcome visitors might be more than pests. Some are well-known carriers of rabies.

The situation has not yet been solved, reports Erb. He says that he called both the Police Department and the Humane Society, and added that neither could do anything about the problem.

He says that he will appreciate any solution anyone would bring up.

Former Resident Gets Doctorate

Jack Switzer, former resident of Sierra Madre, has received his doctorate in biochemistry from the University of California.

Both the University of California and the University of Pennsylvania have requested Dr. Switzer join their staff and continue his cancer research.

Jack is the son of Mary Alice Switzer who lives at 572 Sturtevant Dr. in Sierra Madre.

Up 12% For 6 Months

P. O. Receipts Show Increase

Postmaster Charles E. Louk announced today the postal receipts for the month of June amounted to $17,306.97, which was an increase of approximately 10 percent over June of 1961.

Mr. Louk also released figures comparing the receipts for the first six months of 1962 with those for 1961. Total postal receipts for the period January 1 through June 30, 1961 amounted to $94,952.26 as compared to $107,567.79 for the same period of 1962. This approximates an increase of nearly 12 percent.

Postmaster Louk pointed out by comparison that the receipts for the entire year of 1962, just 20 years ago, totaled $24,142.60, and that receipts for the year 1952 were $97,439.16, which is less than the figures for the first six months of the current year.

Mr. Louk also reported that during the past week communication was received from the Assistant Postmaster General, Bureau of Finance, Washington, D.C., that the Sierra Madre Post Office has been selected as one of approximately 675 representative post offices to make cost ascertainment tests during specified statistical periods of fiscal year 1963 to determine the volumes of mail and financial transactions handled and the related costs. Mr. Louk said that the results will be reported to the Post Office Department.

Brush Fires Destroy 2400 Acres

Sierra Madreams were quite excited Sunday around 3 p.m., when great billows of smoke rose into the sky to the east.

The reason for the smoke was two brush fires. One blaze broke out in Bootleg Canyon, 15 miles east of Newhall, which blackened over 1,800 acres by nightfall.

The second, at almost the same time, was in San Gabriel Canyon, four miles north of Azusa, consuming some 600 acres, most of which was watershed protection.

Children playing with matches were apprehended by arson investigators.

Local residents, standing in the streets, recalled similar fires of last fall in our area.

Retirement Luncheon Given Edward A. Davey Friday

Friday, July 6 climaxed 14 years of government service in the Naval Ordnance program for 77-year-old Edward A. Davey, long-time Sierra Madre resident, retiring from his post as construction superintendent in public works at the Naval Ordnance Testing Station in Pasadena.

Tribute to his years of service was given by a large number of his fellow workers the preceding Thursday with a retirement luncheon at The Derby restaurant. There, he was awarded a plaque from the Navy and a certificate for "Superior Accomplishment" from the workers.

Mr. Davey has worked in the defense manufacturing program with Lockheed, with General Tire, and with the Navy. He resides at 84 Monterey Lane.

IN HIS YEARS with this program, he has also donated his services to the NFFE (National Federation for Federal Employees), to NOTS's credit union of which he was president for three years, and to many NOTS organizations.

Besides these activities he has worked with the Boy Scouts since June, 1910, less than six months after the organization began, and is presently one of its executive board members.

Davey was born in London, England, where he attended London University and received his B.S. in mathematics and physics.

HE CAME to the United States in 1914.

Formal O.K. Yet To Come

Float Committee Selects Two Themes For S.M.

The Sierra Madre Rose Float Association submitted to the Pasadena Rose Parade Association for their approval their themes: "The First Rose Parade 1890," and the "First Flight — Kittyhawk," as second choice.

At the present time the verbal OK has been received on the first choice, however until such time as it has been formally accepted, the second choice remains in force.

Both suggestions had been received at the first meeting of the Association, and reconsidered along with 46 other possible themes when the committee met

Friday, July 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Birch, 234 Ramona Ave., Sierra Madre.

In selecting their theme the Association had to give special consideration to size, costs, predominant subject of theme for construction, utilization of Sierra Madre girls, and qualifications related to prizes.

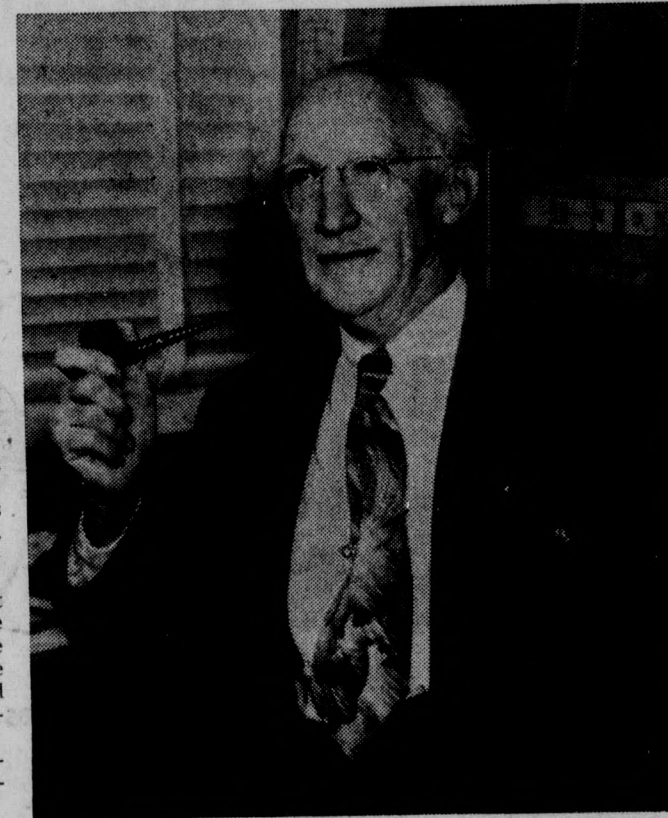

Both themes were suggested by committee persons.

Out of Action For One Month

Sturdy bloodhound Tuffy will be out of action for one month due to severe lacerations of his four paws while tracking Pvt. Dimpter lost in desert near Barstow, Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team were requested by the U.S. Army to track Dimpter who became lost while on maneuvers. The rough terrain and temperatures of 115 degrees caused the death of the late Russ Cone's bloodhound Queenie.

With combinations of visual tracking and Tuffy's ability members were able to track Dimpter through rugged mountains for eight miles before the dog was so badly injured he had to be returned to Ft. Irwin for medical care.

Attempt was made to continue visual tracking, but the prints were destroyed by the 1,000 Army personnel involved in search. Another attempt was made the following Sunday to pick up tracks but to no avail.

The Army advisers continue to search until Dimpter is located.

Speaking of finding things, I am the happiest guy, and I have the happiest family in the world because we found Sierra Madre. Let me state here, that on our first issue we told you where we came from, we told you where we have been, and from this point on, we are doing everything in our power to become Sierra Madreams, we will let those other areas take care of themselves and we will concentrate our efforts on building this great city. Very little use in telling you how they do things here and there, because we are going to do those things, only better and greater, the way Sierra Madreams do them.

Say these new lights in Sierra Madre are out of this world, none finer could be installed, if you don't believe it just ask Bob Green, local manager of the Edison Company in our fair city. If you really want a good conversation with this gentleman, just ask him the difference in cost, and the economic operational cost of these beautiful lights over gas lights. This should keep him busy for a day or two.

How about this, Tom Schwartz with the hot seat.

Local Company Receives Large Defense Contract

The Defense Clothing and Textile Supply Center, an activity of the Defense Supply Agency, awarded one contract for 33,492 Combat Vehicle Crewman's Helmets to Sierra Engineering Company, 89-137 E. Montecito Avenue, Sierra Madre. The contract totaled $916,200.36.

A. A. Gilhouse, left, forty-five year resident of the area and ten years in Sierra Madre, standing beside Robert H. Pratt, direct relative. Pratt sailed his boat around the Horn, selling same upon arrival, he being the engineer responsible for the building of the Union Pacific Railroad from Ogden, Utah to the state capitol in Sacramento.

A. A. Gilhouse Reviews Early Days in California

The foundation from which a community or area is built is oft times aptly laid at the feet of our pioneer residents, such is the case this week in the meeting of Mr. A. A. Gilhouse, artist, who has lived in the Foothill area for over thirty five years and in the City of Sierra Madre for the past ten years.

Gilhouse, in a recent interview, showed much enthusiasm, and his eyes fairly sparkled in speaking of the older days, and the various landmarks that are now completely covered with the population surge to California.

One of his interesting stories relates to the Pratt family and especially Robert H. Pratt who is a direct descendant of his. Early in the 1900's Pratt sailed around the Horn with his boat and upon arrival in San Francisco immediately sold his possession. Pratt being a qualified engineer, spent the next years in building the Union Pacific Railroad between Ogden, Utah and the capitol of California.

Mr. Gilhouse joined the Johnathan Club during the year 1911, and is a very enthusiastic member today.

With Mr. Gilhouse during the interview was his very good friend, Hiley Chenoweth, whose explanation of the artist's works was very interesting. Mr. Gilhouse has caught and portrayed the early life of the Foothill area, his paintings have been on display at the local library and at present are being considered for purchase.

The above picture was taken in Marin County in 1911.

County-wide Tax For Education a Must in '63

Assemblyman Houston I. Flournoy (R-49th) will leave for Monterey today to attend a two-day hearing on educational finance and the county-wide school tax proposal.

Flournoy, a supporter of the county-wide tax in the 1961 Legislature, will sit as a member of the Sub-committee on Finance of the Assembly Interim Committee on Education Thursday and Friday.

The local assemblyman said that it is imperative that some measure, perhaps the county-wide tax, be passed in the 1963 session of the Legislature to improve state support of local school districts and relieve hard-pressed taxpayers in poorer districts.

"If the county-wide tax had been passed by the Legislature in 1961, it would have overcome some of the gross differences between resources of districts within the same counties," Flournoy said.

"At the same time it would have made some 20 million dollars of current support payments available for further relief of financially distressed districts."

As matters now stand, the proposal has been referred to the sub-committee for further study and a report back to the Legislature in January.

Throng Celebrates 4th in County

Record-breaking throngs of Southlanders attended old-fashioned, family style Independence Day celebrations staged Wednesday, July 4, at 24 Los Angeles City parks, beaches and playgrounds, it was reported yesterday by the City Recreation and Park Department.

A total of 476,000 merry-makers was on hand at the 24 facilities for this year's seventh annual observance compared with 1961's 375,000 attendance, according to William Frederickson Jr., superintendent of recreation.

Clark Marshall Assists In Protonic Display

Especially recognized for his creative ability in pyrotechnic displays, Clark Marshall, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Clark 657 Ramona Ave., has been spending this last week with his parents.

As technical engineer with the San Francisco Pelme Division of Quantic Industry, young Clark's former company, Atlas Fireworks support payments available for further relief of financially distressed districts.

As matters now stand, the proposal has been referred to the sub-committee for further study and a report back to the Legislature in January.

Volunteer Firemen Hold Annual 4th of July Picnic

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Firemen, along with wives, children and friends, held their annual Fourth of July Picnic at the Maddox home on N. Auburn Ave. The picnic was enjoyed by all present.

This picnic, which is a Fire Department tradition of more than 30 years, was started back in the days when all kinds of fireworks were permitted and the department being volunteer, it was decided to hold a picnic on the Fourth so that in the event of an emergency there would be firemen in town to handle it.

Money for this event is collected during the year by fines levied on members at the meetings by the Chief, or by other members by motions from the floor and voted on by members at the meeting; also for infractions of department rules.

The day was spoiled by a fire call at the top of Mount Wilson Trail at 5:30 p.m. The fire apparently was in the very dry brush in that area.

The members of the Fire Department wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Maddox for their generous donation of their property for the picnic.

Fishing Fair This Week

Fishing was rated fair at Crowley Lake, the Eastern High Sierra "lair of the tackle-busters," last Saturday (July 7) but it has been poor for the past week, it was reported today (Monday, July 9) by the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Department.

Reporting by telephone this morning, South Landing Manager Warren Bahm said that the lake is calm and the weather is wonderful. It was 70 degrees at 8 a.m. today and the high yesterday was 87 degrees.

Juveniles Nabbed For Toy Thefts

Police over the weekend took into custody two Hastings Ranch juveniles, one 14, the other 9, on shoplifting charges. They were remanded into custody of their parents pending disposition of their cases.

They were accused of lifting several toys, including puff cushions which make a loud noise when sat upon, magic cigars and other toys at the Toy and Patio Village, 150 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Previously, Sierra Madre police report, they conducted a similar expedition at the Carroll store in Hastings Ranch.

See Your Nurseryman

Summer Color Is Yours For the Planting

There's one thing about summer color in California gardens. It may thin out on occasion due to vacation neglect or lack of foresight, but there's always plenty of it waiting at the corner nursery.

Annuals that give quick bloom, plus perennials and shrubs already in bloom are yours for the planting when a color transfusion is called for.

We were reminded of this by a note from a California of Nurserymen extolling the virtues of the newer Lantanas which member nurserymen have been offering in recent years. These are an ever-improving breed which can be relied on for color through much of the year, but most especially in the good old summer time. They like it hot, and no doubt about it.

Gardeners often fail to take advantage of the Lantana's willingness to bloom under conditions of neglect, poor soil—anything but shade. The C.A.N. suggests growing them not only as trailers for banks and walls, but as tubbed or hanging basket specimens. The dwarf Lantanas, such as the pink Christine or orange Radiation, are well suited to such culture. They need only trimming back on occasion to keep them compact.

A real breakthrough in Lantanas came some years ago when the brilliant yellow hybrid, Gold Rush, was introduced. Today, C.A.N. nurserymen offer Gold Rush Improved and a number of newer hybrids in several good color combinations. These are mostly spreading shrubs, but more refined than the familiar lavender trailer of old.

Try these next time you run out of summer color. In fact, try them before that. The newer Lantanas are too good to wait for.

A trip to the nursery this week will serve to remind you, also, that container-grown roses provide the gardener with ready-made color when he needs it. And what color it is. Simply have your nurseryman slit the container to facilitate removal, then plant the bush to the same depth—no deeper—than it was in the container. You might try roses in tubs, also. As a look at your nursery will prove, they are well adapted to container growing.

The exotic tropical Hibiscus is one of summer's joys in California. Hibiscus is at its best in Southern California, since the wonderfully temperate climate coaxes such a long period of bloom out of it. But gardeners in other parts of the state should never hesitate to plant it.

Inland, where winter frost is a factor, the Hibiscus can be grown in a container and given protection during the cold months. It loves the warm days and nights of a valley summer and you find the gardeners who grow it as an annual just for the lovely bloom it gives in one summer season. In coastside gardens of northern California, frost is no problem, but temperature is. Best results come from Hibiscus grown against a sunny wall.

Nurserymen in Southern California have the longest list of named Hibiscus, there being 20 or more varieties to choose from. But C.A.N. members elsewhere are stocking increasing numbers of them as their popularity spreads. Named Hibiscus varieties to look for include the familiar rose-pink Agnes Gault, the double golden-yellow Crown of Bohemia, the ruffled-pink Ross Estey, the Vividly-red single President and the double-pink variety Kona. One of the best known and brightest reds is Brilliant. Some of these are occasionally found trained to small tree form, and a spectacular small tree they make. Like roses, and unlike Lantana, the Hibiscus is a gross feeder and drinker. Given plenty of food and water, plus a good thick mulch of steer manure, it will respond with continuous good summer growth. And, as it is with roses, also, it's the new growth that brings new bloom.

*Botanical note: The tropical Hibiscus is Hibiscus rose-sinensis.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Last week, — on the 4th of July most all of us were Flag conscious, — one way or the other. Very early in the morning — at our house, we peered across the street, and, yes, two of our neighbors had OLD GLORY already flying in the breeze, and very soon our own flag was proudly waving for all to see.

It was a very pretty picture all around the neighborhood and inspired me to take a little walk on Grand View Ave. — and Toyon Road and sort of think and to be grateful for all our Independence and Liberties. Yes, it was the 4th of July, and every person who had so carefully placed their stars and stripes to catch the morning breeze had done so most reverently to display the symbol of our freedom. These neighbors would pick up their morning papers from the front lawn and would not turn to the many fine editorials — written in memory of the great men who founded our land of liberty. Thinking back just one year ago I recalled the day in Washington when it was my privilege to stand in quiet awe before the original Declaration of Independence and read the names of the signers of that precious document. No one is obliged to put on glasses to read the name of JOHN HANCOCK, for he purposely wrote his name with a large flourish; — one could understand why!

But I am digressing from the flags which I was to see on my morning stroll. The one on Toyon Road particularly caught my gaze because of the size, — and sort of ancient look. It had just been securely put up by Mr. and Mrs. Kirkland, and as I joined them we all looked proudly to see it flying up against the blue sky! The flag was one of their proud possessions, but Mrs. Kirkland was apologetic for its well-worn look, — and she said — "it has only 45 stars, — and they are sewed on, — or appliqued, — and the Flag is made of wool!" So — we have added five more stars since that lovely flag had first been unfurled — and that made it quite old, — as flags go. And as I walked on down the street — I turned again to look at that old flag which had so proudly waved its 45 stars and 13 stripes all these years — and to me it was the most beautiful of them all. And to me it seemed time indeed for us all to be known as "Flag Wavers."

A next door neighbor 221 W. Grand View P.S. Enclosed find my contribution for a FLAG!

Dear Editor:

I am exasperated beyond expression with the new postoffice site. It is past my understanding that anyone could have deliberately planned such a building at such a location. The post-office employees are apparently satisfied with the working area they now have and that is important. Important also however, is the public whom they serve. Not only is the parking inadequate, it is not even maintained (if one could call that area immediately north of the building a "parking area"). The few available spaces on the street are unmarked and far from adequate. Would diagonal parking be an answer?

The outside box for street deposit is so high it cannot be reached from a car, thus eliminating one of its main purposes. Last, and certainly not least, the steeply inclined walk to the door is a real hazard. I know of falls there. Someone is asking for costly litigation.

I suggest that an expert be called in to attempt to remedy what appears to be a near impossible situation.

—LUCILE S. EATON

Dear Editor: Enclosed is my contribution to the fund for the flag pole to be placed in the square.

I think it is a delightful idea, as I always felt the old square had lost its character when the little old street car station and the big tree were removed. Sierra Madre has always been a happy place in which to live, with friendly, pleasant people, and I am happy to feel that a few of the old friends carry on.

With best wishes for the success of the undertaking, believe me, for a childbirth. The good doctor who brought four of our children into the world deftly got around that by becoming a specialist, accepting none but obstetrics cases and including several weeks of pre-birth and after-birth checkups, which was all right . . . It was he who told me, half jokingly, that there had been such a law and that was how it was made obsolete. If that is true, it is interesting to reflect that there once was a ceiling on at least one medical fee, and apparently no one thought of calling it Socialism. Since then quite a number of health-insurance companies have tried to put ceilings on operations, allowing only so much for this or that operation, and as they are all big business organizations I doubt that they would like to have those efforts classed as Socialistic. And the fact that some doctors accept those fees as adequate indicates that there is some justice in them.

—MRS. W. JARVIS BARLOW

One doesn't like to think of his doctor as a member of a labor union, but when his organization calls a strike and he gives it such loyal support that a child dies for lack of medical care it's mighty like a closed shop, and seems a long way short of living up to the Hippocratic oath.

A pact was made with the State Division of Mines and Geology to pay half of the $10,500 cost in the coming fiscal year.

Burns Wants Cross-filing Vote Return

By Edwin Capes

SACRAMENTO — Announcement by Senator Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, and the State Senate, president pro-tem, that he will sponsor a measure to return cross-filing to the state's political picture, will spark some strong controversy among politicians on both sides of the fence.

Senator Burns opposed abolition of cross-filing in the 1959 legislative session. He said such elimination was predicated on the belief voters don't know what they are doing when they go to the polls.

"I differ from that school of thought," the senator declared. "I think the voters do a good job and that they do know what they are doing when they go to the polls."

BURNS, A DEMOCRAT, will find a supporter for cross-filing in Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan, a Republican. Jordan says he has had more complaint from county clerks throughout the state since cross-filing was eliminated than he ever has had before.

"People write in all kinds of names," Jordan says, "and everyone of them have to be tabulated, even 'Mickey Mouse.' This has increased tremendously since cross filing was abolished, for when people can't vote for whom they chose, even though the candidate may be out of their party, they write in anything that happens to come to mind."

It is not surprising that a move to return cross-filing should come from a Democrat. It was cross-filing that kept the Republicans in power in the Legislature for many years. Now that the Democrats are in the saddle, they may want to use the same process to remain.

HOWEVER, there is no doubt that Senator Burns is motivated by much higher ideals in his proposal than mere continuance of one party in power. Burns feels that people should be able to vote for whom they choose, regardless of party. In his own district in Fresno, Burns won not only the nomination for the Senate by popular acclaim, but also the Republican nomination by write-in vote. Consequently, he is sure to be around in January to introduce his measure.

No doubt the Senate's president pro-tem will find a lot of Republican support for his proposal, which should it pass, would have the effect of returning the Senate and Assembly to rule by individual instead of by party.

PERFECT AIM Make this the goal of everyday living — today is going to be the best day of the year.

Sierra Madre Employment Steady Increase

While industry in Sierra Madre and neighboring areas increases slowly but surely, the exodus of manufacturing firms from Pasadena continues, according to the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce's bi-annual industrial survey.

Employing 1,711 persons, 77 manufacturing companies, have moved from Pasadena in the past two years. The report also reveals that 49 new manufacturing firms have moved into the city, creating 1,084 jobs.

There is a net loss of 28 firms, with a reflected loss of 627 jobs, according to John McCarthy, Chamber manager.

ACCORDING to the latter, several of the companies moving were substantially large and in this figures loss of sales tax revenue. One of the firms reporting an increase in its labor force is about to remove from Pasadena.

The total picture shows that since 1952 firms removing from Pasadena total 252, McCarthy reports.

Meanwhile, Sierra Madre continues its steady increase in employment. Some time during the year more than 200 additional skilled workers will be added to the Sierra Engineering plant where an extensive program of additions has been under way for more than a year.

Type-O Blood Needed

Red Cross has issued an urgent appeal for donors with Type-O blood.

Following an "unprecedented run" on the organization's blood supply by hemorrhaging Type-O patients, Red Cross has been asked to provide blood for a record 72 heart patients scheduled for surgery before the end of the month.

Declaring that more than two-thirds of these heart cases are children, Mrs. Richard Barden, Red Cross chairman of the blood program in Sierra Madre, said that "of the 20 cases scheduled for surgery this week, 14 range in age from 3 to 17 years."

"This is the highest heart surgery month we've had since the heart-lung machine and open-heart technique were developed here six years ago," Mrs. Barden stated.

Individuals with Type-O blood are asked to call the Pasadena Chapter of Red Cross, of which Sierra Madre is a branch, day or night at SY. 6-9141.

"Although the overwhelming demand is for Type-O, the need for all other types goes on as before," the Red Cross volunteer said.

'and the Star-Spangler Banner in triumph shall wave o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave'

"This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give from generation to generation. The choices are ours. It floats in majestic silence above the hosts that execute those choices, whether in peace or in war. And yet, though silent, it speaks to us — speaks to us of the past, of the men and women who went before us, and of the records they wrote upon it."

WOODROW WILSON, 28th UNITED STATES PRESIDENT

Our National flag — The Star-Spangled Banner, The Stars and Stripes, Old Glory — was born amid our country's early fight for freedom, first flying at the head of the Continental Army under George Washington.

Since the establishment of the Stars and Stripes by resolution of the Continental Congress one-hundred and eighty-five years ago, it has flown through scores of battles, leading brave men in their unwavering quest for Right and Liberty. It has waved across the Land in years of peace as a symbol of the priceless privileges we have won and must protect.

So long as Americans continue to hold dear those privileges bought for us on the battlefields; so long as they will lay down their lives for liberty; so long as those principles of truth, justice and charity upon which our country was built, remain the principles of each American — "The Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave . . ."

Ranch Roundup

Daily press releases indicate the Madison Avenue boys and the network officials of the television industry have their heads together deciding the fate of your TV viewing.

I'm delighted that "Hazel," so inimitably characterized by Shirley Booth, did not get the axe. While we're currently enjoying "re-peats," new episodes of this family show will be shown in the fall. However, I wish the powers that be would move Hazel to an earlier hour, so that more of school age could watch Hazel, the unbeatable cook and philosopher, tackle problems of domestic tranquility, child rearing, match-making, and more. I've concluded that no suburban household should be without its HAZEL!

Sorry to hear "87th Precinct" will not be in the fall line-up. I had chalked this one up as being worthy viewing, due to some fine acting and diversified character portrayal among the police officers. In my humble opinion, the show had real public relations value in gaining respect for our law enforcement officers at a time when there seems to be a successful campaign to discredit them.

Meanwhile, back at the stationhouse they're calling "Car 54, Where Are You?" and viewers may catch up with those two zany cops next season.

Here, there, and everywhere will be the destination of the majority of folk who plan a sweeping exodus from these hills at the conclusion of summer school. Meanwhile, there's news of early vacationers now returning. Wendy Booth spent

Tigers Win Hastings Ranch L.L. Championship

Led by the pitching of Tim Evans (won 10—lost 0) and Paul Mozlar (won 7—lost 1), the Tigers won their first championship in 16 years with a record of 17 wins against two losses. Besides pitching 10 victories in a row, Evans batted an even 600 for the season with 33 hits in 55 times at bat, including five home runs. He also completed his fourth season as a Tiger in which he played 59 complete games at shortstop without ever having committed a fielding error. The Tiger's victory was strictly a team effort, however, and every boy on the team contributed greatly toward all of their victories.

Two weeks at Balboa house-guesting with an aunt... Jean Brockman and her four youngsters weekendened with the William Schlar family in their new home at Arrowhead. Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkland and son, Bill, had a delightful 15 days in Hawaii. They toured four other islands, too. Jeanne and Ken Tolbert took their two sons camping in King's Canyon. Shirley and Ray Jennings took in the Fair.

Fran and Peare Pedley (they're renting Lillian Burke's home while she's living and secretarialing at the Capistrano Beach Club) also took off for the Fair. Nearby, Marsha and Dave Pedley and their five youngsters remain at home and cool in the pool!

The Frank Crowhurst family just returned from their home at Indian Wells. Contrary to popular belief, Jan reports the desert "was perfectly delightful." Frank, a super air conditioning salesman, has won TWO TRIPS which he and Jan took forward to taking in the fall: to Honolulu AND Mexico City! Since Frank is Footfill Republican Club prexy, we hope he schedules the trips AFTER the November election.

Dorothy Horn and four of her youngsters are spending the week at Laguna Beach; while three remain at home for summer school and, along with Dad, keep the home front watered. I've mentioned before that Dorothy is one of a number of selfless Ranch Mothers volunteering at St. Luke Hospital (I'll go into that more fully next week). Recently Dorothy Horn, mother of seven, received her 500-hour pin. Congratulations! I understand Dorothy plans to enroll in full-fledged nurses training in September. After 500 hours as a volunteer, that sounds like taking coals to Newcastle, or something—but look luck, Dorothy.

Joanna (Mrs. Harrison) Baker should be a travel agent. In a short conversation she graphically described all the delights and pitfalls of their family's Northwest travels. With daughters, Sharon, Pam and Wendy, they took in the Fair and spent one week visiting Seattle friends. Bud went salmon fishing in Puget Sound—his catch was one salmon and 11 SHARKS. Joanna recommends driving to Anacortes, then ferrying through the San Juan Islands to Victoria. Like everywhere else in the Northwest this season, there was a lengthy line waiting for the ferry. But Joanna reports the trip through the Islands was the highlight of their long trip. They took the long, leisurely route home, through the Olympia Peninsula and saw not a drop of

They scored a total of 143 runs to their opponents 45. The most improved players over last year for the Tigers were Gary Jennings, first base, Mike Hedrick, center field, and Neil Conroy, third base.

Six Tigers made the All-Star Team: Tim Evans (second year), Kirk Schlea, Mike Hedrick, Brad Fey, Paul Mazlar, and Gary Jennings.

The remainder of the Hastings Ranch All-Star Team is as follows: Yankees—Jim Mathieu, Scot t Thompson and Elihai Roth; Braves, Steve Rotsker (2nd year) Robin Reddy and Larry Pastri; Reds—Steve Coots, Mark Ryan and Steve Langstaff (2nd year); Indians, John Weger (2nd year) and Hill Hanson; Dodgers—Greg Brown.

The final standings of the Hastings Ranch Little League are as follows:

Sponsor—Team W. L.
Circle Seal (Tigers) 17 2
Lindy Lou's
Pancake House (Yankees) 12 6
Mutual Savings (Braves) 9 11

Christian Women To Meet July 18

"The wig is with us" is the intriguing title of the special feature to be presented at this month's meeting of the Pasadena Christian Women's Club, Wednesday, July 18. The ladies will have as their guest, Mr. James Madaus, better known in this area as Mr. James. He will be showing the latest uses of wigs not only to change the color of milady's tresses, but also in natural shades as the answer to "how to enjoy the daily swim and have a neat hair-do."

Miss Joanne Byron, teenage daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Byron of Arcadia, will be singing.

Mrs. Gordon Smith, Pasadena, will present Mr. Ros Thompson as featured speaker.

rain. The family was enraptured with the beauty of the Oregon and Washington coastline.

Sounds idyllic, but there's more. The Bakers will spend the rest of the summer at their smog-free Catalina home. Having never set foot on the Island, Joanna proceeded to give me the A-1 Chamber of Commerce pep talk, with the result I'm ready to take-off NOW! Great place to mend frayed nerves, so say Bud and other businessmen who commute to the Island by plane for long weekends.

The Bakers often pack picnic lunches, leave Avalon (and with their Wrigley property owner's permit) drive for about 40 minutes over mountains, past lakes, herds of buffalo, mountain goats and deer, to the beautiful but deserted beaches on the far side of the island. Sounds like a dream come true for the freeway commuter!

Most of us, in varying degrees, have an interest or knack for interior decoration and home remodeling. But Barbara Fasching certainly takes the prize. After running a part-time interior decorating business for some years, Barbara turned her attention to remodeling,

I've often said I'd like to go back to the good old days. What these days would mean to me, I've never really considered until this past couple of weeks. After practically ransoming our souls to get the TV, dishwasher and washing machine out of hock, I realized that the good old days for this family would have to be with reservations. The TV could be spared and I'm sure we would all do more reading, or gardening or repair, but the dishwasher and the washing machine, that's a horse of a different color. Sure, the dishes get spotty, but we're used to the spots. The tubbing out by hand bit is just not for this old body. I just never realized I had so many unused muscles as I've discovered this last week. The washboard can assume a place of honor in the archives; I'll develop my knuckles from pushing buttons!

Summer means travel and the Hillites have been doing their share in traveling northward.

The Charles Goldsworthys, with their two children, Nancy and Charlie, returned last week from a 5,000-mile trip that took them first to Seattle, where they naturally visited the Fair. The most thrilling part of the entire extravaganza to them was the Science Building.

After leaving Seattle they took the Trans-Canadian Highway to Jasper, then on to Lake Louise and Banff. They returned by way of the Waterton Lakes in Canada, where they were forced from their campsite by 70-mile-an-hour windstorms. Back in the U.S., they stopped at Glacier National Park and Yellowstone, where they had great success trout fishing.

Also back from a northern trip are Mr. and Mrs. Neal Batterson of Doyle Rd. and Dr. and Mrs. William Covey of Sierra Madre. They, too, went to Seattle to the Fair and then on to Vancouver B.C., then took the Island and enrolled in a building construction class at PCC (First-time female student in the course, by the way.) Her class work came in handy when the Faschings moved from Leonard to Ranch Top Rd. Barbara, with the aid of another student, knocked out a wall and installed a 26-foot glass wall. There's a new pool, too, at the Ranch Top address which especially pleases 11-year-old Lynn and 13-year-old Lee. Apparently following in Mother's footsteps—Lee has built his own dark room!

Among Barbara's Ranch friends who came to coffee recently, oohing and aahing over her completed project, were Barbara Victor, Renee Bignell, Jean Forsberg, Fran Kenmonth, Beth Bachtel, Barbara Campbell, Lois Harris, Ann McKnight, Louise Swiss, Kay Pulsifer and Sally Boyce. Then last Saturday night the Faschings entertained Shirley and Art Evans, Ann and Ron Edwards, Fran and Don Kenmonth for bridge.

Pat and John Norris, and their youngsters, Linda, Christie, Rick and Jane, celebrated July Fourth in a big way at their new Altadena home. Six Ranch families—the Charlie Hardisons, Robert Measons, Allan Stearns, Hal Leffingwells, Wells Pleas, and the Dick Elliotts—enjoyed a bird's eye view of the fireworks display at the country club across the street.

The Norris family will be missed around the Ranch, but like so many C. F. Guild members, they'll keep in touch.

Defeated El Monte 233-151

Swim Team Claims Season's First Victory

For that look of pride on the faces of Sierra Madre residents, credit goes to our City Swim Team which claimed its first victory of the season Saturday, July 7, defeating El Monte with a score of 233 to 151. The meet, which was held in the El Monte City Pool, featured swimming races for boys and girls ages 7-16 in backstroke, breaststroke, butterfly and freestyle.

This was the second meet of the season for this young group of athletes who, under the able coaching of Rick Appleton and his assistant Bill Keita, work out for 1 to 2 hours every day at our local pool. But long hours of practice and hard work have their rewards, and they put on a truly magnificent show on Saturday.

Outstanding performances were given by the following, who stroked to the finish line well ahead of their contenders, to claim blue ribbons: 15-16 yr. boys—Roger Keith, 1st breaststroke and 1st butterfly; 13-14 yr. girls—Lauren Davidson, 1st butterfly; 11-12 yr. boys—Keith Casenhiser, 1st breaststroke; Greg Gibson, 1st backstroke; 9-10 yr. boys—Joel Norcovich, 1st backstroke; 9-10 yr. girls—Annette McKee, 1st breaststroke, 1st butterfly.

A group of 150 spectators watched the team when they hosted the Arcadia team on June 30 at Sierra Madre Pool to open the 1962 season. Although our team gave it their all, the Arcadia team defeated them by 11 points.

The next meet will be held on Saturday, July 14, at 9 a.m. here in Sierra Madre, as we play host to the Covina City Pool Team. This promises to be a thrilling meet, with 48 races for boys and girls from 7 to 16 yrs., in the breaststroke, the butterfly, freestyle and the popular and exciting freestyle relay races. Last year, Covina defeated Sierra Madre by more than 100 points, but if last week's performance is a sample of things to come, the score will look much different this year. Of course, your support will help—so—see you at the pool!

Football Classical Nite
Thursday, July 26th

By Toni Mauris

Don't write—call! If you want to get tickets for the Foothill Classical Night on Thursday, July 26th, featuring Igor Stravinsky.

This program is planned as a tribute to Mr. Stravinsky on the occasion of his 80th birthday anniversary. You will hear all of your favorite Stravinsky works, such as the "Firebird Suite," the once-controversial "Rite of Spring," to be conducted by his protégé, Mr. Robert Craft, "Fireworks," and "Scherzo Fantastique." Mr. Stravinsky, himself, will conduct three of his own works. You won't want to miss this fine old man of music. He started his early life studying to be a lawyer, but at the age of 19 he met Rimsky-Korsakov, the great Russian composer, and in spite of the fact that his father disapproved of a musical career for his son, Mr. Rimsky-Korsakov encouraged him to go on with what was to become his life's calling.

His music often has been the subject of great disputes, but has always won out and endured in spite of great condemnation upon occasion.

It is a rare privilege to be able to see and hear this great man at our own Hollywood Bowl, and one you won't want to miss.

In order to get tickets, you will have to call immediately as reservations are being extended only till today, July 12, for latecomers.

Call Mrs. Malcom Harris, EL 5-1484. Her address is 1336 Oak Meadow Rd., Aradia.

The bus will leave, as usual, at 6:30 p.m. from below.

L. A. County
Received
$235,704,400

The state department of education reported today that Los Angeles county received a total of $235,704,400 from the state school fund during the 1961-62 fiscal year to help support the educational program for California students in kindergarten through junior college.

The 1961-62 apportionment included $17,346,321 for special apportionment (for education of handicapped pupils, student transportation and driver training) and $8,805,343 for enrollment growth. The total county apportionment compared with an apportionment of $223,874,058 for the 1960-61 fiscal year.

The total statewide apportionment for the year was $711,699,034 which paid an estimated 40 per cent of school costs. The state pays school districts a flat $125 per student in average daily attendance, then adds more funds for districts which are unable to raise sufficient money with the minimum tax required.

With the minimum tax, the state's regular foundation program guarantees school districts $234 for each elementary student, $324 for each high school student and $543 for each junior college student.

Actual education costs for students in the 1960-61 fiscal year, the department said, were $376, $574 and $640 for the three levels.

Sierra Madre
Has Steady
Sales Rise

Business increases slowly but steadily in Sierra Madre according to the report in sales and use taxes made in recent figures submitted by Richard Nevins, Southern California member of the State Board of Equalization.

Figures for the 1961-62 fiscal year show a total of $51,860 as compared to $51,029 for the 1960-61 fiscal year, a gain of 1.6 per cent. The second quarter, however, revealed a decrease from $12,458 to $11,147.

San Marino showed a loss of 12.5 per cent for the year, dropping from $130,225 to $113,948. Alhambra reported a loss of 2 per cent, decreasing from $1,007,029 to $1,005,327.

ARCADIA, with figures of $608,564 and $654,227 showed a 7.5 per cent gain as did Monrovia, with figures of $479,525 and $458,962, for a 4.5 per cent gain.

Twenty-nine Valley cities showed gains over the previous fiscal year while four recorded losses, the other two being Duarte and La Verne.

This tax money which is returned to the cities on the basis of their taxable sales generally is considered an adequate barometer of business activity.

LA PUENTE, with a 35 per cent increase, led Valley cities in percentage of increase. El Monte's dollar volume increased more than $200,000, leading the Valley cities in that respect.

The amount returned to the cities represents 1 per cent of the 4 per cent sales tax collected. The amounts were dispatched to the cities during May and June.

The Chamber of Commerce President, John H. Curtis, personally says that he is sorry that the Reece 5, 10 & 25 Cent store, 26 W. The Reece store has long been an active member of the chamber and a loyal supporter of chamber activities. "We not only wish them well," said Curtis, "but ask their understanding and forgiveness in this mistake."

Officer Tucker Vindicated

Woman Was Not Driver of Vehicle

Due to an incomplete report on the police blotter this past week, Officer Tucker was given undue criticism. The report was completed over the past week, and the true facts of the woman driver who made the statement, "I have killed children before, I'll kill them again," has been clarified.

The woman who made this statement was not the driver of the vehicle stopped, it was her husband, because he was operating a trailer without a license, that the trailer had no safety chain, and had no operator's license, since it expired in April of this year.

City Council

full agenda, became very disturbed at the persistence of Eaton, and after several attempts at removing Eaton from the rostrum, declared that Item No. 2, Sewer District 77, be placed at the bottom of the agenda, where all that felt obliged could argue the situation all night if necessary.

Smart Move

This move on the part of Mayor Vannier, proved to be a smart move. It allowed City Attorney Martin to get together with Eaton, and review in private the findings of the protestor. Eaton was given the right to speak on District 75 should it come up in his absence from the council chambers.

District 75

During the absence of Eaton and City Attorney Martin, bids were opened on Sewer District No. 75. The Engineers estimated cost of construction only had been set at $284,252.50. It was found that the low bidder for the construction only was N. G. Bee Construction Co. with a bid of $275,218.79. High bidder was in excess of $410,000. The council awarded the bid to the low bidder.

Return of Eaton

On return to the chambers of Eaton and City Attorney Martin, Martin explained that according to the findings of Eaton, and he had every reason to believe the findings accurate, that 6 signatures on the petition were faulty, which would eliminate 67,000 feet from the area, reducing the percentage from 60.5 to 56.7, and that sufficient evidence that others wishing to remove their names from the petition would involve the elimination of 115,000 more square feet of area, reducing the petition to 50.38 percent.

Insufficient

City Attorney Martin recommended that the Council either order an investigation of Eaton's findings or declare the petition insufficient. The council disqualified the petition and thanked Noran Eaton for his findings.

The district at this moment is a dead issue to revive it the petitioners must either re-petition for the required amount of area, or owners can bring in the County Health Department and ask to have the district declared a health hazard.

Eaton Heard

Standing on his right to be heard on District No. 75, Eaton declared that he may be able to find that this district is also insufficient in area signed petition, whereupon a verbal battle ensued between City Administrator Bevington and Eaton, with some very unkindly remarks being made. Bevington declared that the bonding companies had reviewed the situation and he relied upon them, for the moment.

In between the discussion in District 77, the council completed its agenda, with the Flood Control Matter discussed, and due to an attempt to form the 4-group plan was delayed to a future discussion.

Mrs. Anthony, Chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission took the rostrum to compliment Tom Butch, recreational Director. Her statement in part was "Due to the efforts of our Director the expense of

While the officer was in the process of issuing a citation, a group of children was standing on the sidewalk watching the procedure, and evidently getting on the nerves of the wife of the driver. She got out of the vehicle and in an attempt to drive the children from the scene did make the remark, "If you do not go away I will kill you. I have killed children before and I will do it again."

At about this time a third male member of the trio entered the argument, whereupon Officer Tucker called Arcadia police for assistance in case of additional trouble. Officer Tucker informed the woman that unless she returned to the car and stopped threatening the children, he would place her under arrest. She did this immediately.

It was the opinion of the officer that the woman was excited and disturbed due to her husband receiving a citation, and was taking the matter out on the children present. At no time did the woman approach the children or make any physical attempt upon them.

The names of the persons involved is public record. Should anyone wish further information, they can obtain same at the police department.

Since the persons involved were residents of Sierra and had no record of the incidents, Officer Tucker did not feel a citation was necessary, as the woman obeyed him and returned to the car.

Retirement

States in 1907, and two years later became a teacher in Illinois.

During World War I he served in the U.S. Infantry as a lieutenant. Afterwards he resumed his teaching career in Michigan where he met his wife, Lorraine.

In 1928 they made their home in Sierra Madre and have been living here since. Davey recalls that "just a little over 3,000 people" were living in Sierra Madre at the time he and his wife moved here.

Davey, who has been all over the world, calls Sierra Madre, "the finest little spot . . . to live in."

A busy man, he still manages to find time to relax in his pool and continue pursuing his many hobbies which include cabinet making, raising Samoyed dogs and gardening.

The Daveys have two sons and one daughter: Richard A. Davey, landscape architect; Donald B. Davey, electronic technician, and Mary Jane Barlow, medical doctor.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

May I use this opportunity to congratulate the people of Sierra Madre for NOT contributing to the Don Jackson-Sierra Madre News Flagpole Fund. I attribute this to the fact that perhaps they may feel the same way as I do about it. They, and I, were most willing to contribute to the Rescue Team Fund. We believed it was for a humanitarian cause. And a rather small appeal in your columns was enough to send this fund far above its goal.

However you have, in my opinion, belabored your case for the flagpole across the front page of your paper until it has not only detracted from the importance of other news, but has also soured me—and perhaps others—on the whole idea. I would now willingly work to convince others NOT to contribute and to save their dollars for better and more worthy causes. Hence this letter.

In my opinion patriotism is not a thing of flags and symbols but is rather indicated and developed by the way the citizens of a country or community band together for their own mutual improvement. By this means — through the ways they deal with each other — they show their respect for the principles upon which their country was founded.

Sierra Madre is a city where diverse groups of people have lived together happily and constructively for some time. They way my wife and I were greeted and treated when we moved here a few short months ago was clear indication to me that this was a community of patriotic citizens. Many articles and advertisements in your paper have corroborated this fact, as also did the response to the Rescue Fund. Also where else are there such excellent medical and recreational facilities in a community of this size? Where else a co-operative nursery school? Where else do such a diverse group of persons of all faiths and strata of society live together with such little evidence of strife, prejudice, or discrimination? I, too, would agree with one of your correspondents that Sierra Madre is a patriotic community but I would use as my evidence for this not the number of flags displayed, but rather the spirit of community living which is manifested by Sierra Madres.

—RONALD LEVY

Dear Editor:

Herewith my contribution to the Flagpole Fund, of which I am enthusiastically in favor. I can think of nothing which could add more to the beauty of an already charming little city, besides being a constant reminder to all true Americans of our wonderful heritage, and just how plain lucky we are to live in and be a part of this wonderful country of ours.

I shall be coming home for a visit in the fall and will be so disappointed not to see a beautiful new 50-star flag flying atop a bright, new flagpole in Kersting Triangle.

Dear Editor:

In behalf of the Sierra Madre Baseball Association and the Women's Auxiliary, I would like to thank you for your outstanding support of our baseball program.

Through your newspaper we have been able to reach many fine people who have helped our project. The response has been most gratifying to us and to the 253, 8 to 15 year old, Sierra Madre boys who love baseball.

The Sierra Madre Baseball Association has realized increasing success in its 6 years of life. This season was especially successful due to the hard work by the men and women of the Association; and to your most generous gift of space and pictures in the Sierra Madre News. We are very appreciative of your kindnesses and thoughtful contributions.

CARROT TOP

In talking to his partner Emile E. Smith, Emile said that he grabbed up a piece of cardboard box, and I was sure he was going to say to "fan Tom's cabbage" but he used it to administer first aid, and a mighty good job so I fear, nice to have a partner who has your interest at heart.

—CT—

Did you know that advertising really pays dividends, especially so when it is placed in the Sierra Madre News. Time after time during the first few weeks here, we have had call after call telling us that they have tried other publications to sell this or that, and on the first advertisement placed in the News they sell their product within hours. Now comes Barney Yunk, REALTORS, spelled in capital letters, and tells us that last week his new Town House Apartments, that was opened to the public, via the Sierra Madre News, had 400 viewers.

—CT—

I remarked to Barney, that the apartments were ultra, the best that I had ever had the opportunity of looking over. His retort to this remark was "I'm in California now and nobody has any respect here for a guy who goes in hock small." We represent the best.

—CT—

Quite so Barney, but you should hear what Frank Dolph of the First Western Bank has to say, in fact as soon as I have time I am going to sit down and figure out what he meant when he stated "The future is but a reflection of the best and the worst of the past. Look to your past and find your future."

—CT—

In bidding you farewell for the week, I wish to mention our new Advertising and Merchandising Manager, Jack Kennedy, (nope not "the" Jack Kennedy), but a swell guy chucked full of wonderful merchandise ideas, feel free to call upon him at any time, you will find him willing and able to give you many pointers of advice in this field.

—CT—

This is thirty for this week, I will be back again with you next week — I hope, I hope, I hope.

where in this issue.)

Dear Editor:

I am writing in regard to the enclosed article which appeared in the S. M. News. If your reporting was accurate, which I have no reason to doubt, kindly have the officer explain in print the reason for this example of police action. Why was this woman, who most certainly is a mental case with criminal tendency, allowed or induced to drive away? Was a "make" put on the information the officer received, is it being followed up or is it merely sufficient that she drove off to another area?

I'm concerned with this example in a case of this nature, being my two youngsters go along the city streets to the library along this route.

Being favorably impressed with officer Tucker's work and results in other cases, I think it fair to give him a chance to explain his motive of operation in a situation of this sort which is of interest to every parent.

POLITICAL PARADE

By Clem Whitaker, Jr.

California's law makers streamed back into weather-and politics-hot Sacramento this week for the special session called by Governor Edmund G. Brown on the question of resubmitting a multi-million dollar bond package defeated in the June primary election to the voters in November.

Bonds Back?

The proposals were labeled Proposition No. 3, a $270,000,000 state construction bond package and Proposition No. 5, a $150,000,000 park and recreation bond package on the June ballot.

The voters turned down Proposition No. 3 by a 2 to 1 margin and Proposition No. 5 by about 200,000 votes. In other words, voter action was decisive on Proposition No. 3 and somewhat less so on Proposition No. 5.

Governor Brown's major political problem is that the Administration counted on the passage of Proposition No. 3 to balance the state budget. With the failure of the measure the budget is out of balance by about $92 million — a somewhat embarrassing problem for an Administration which has talked considerably about its balanced budgets and fiscal responsibility.

A further problem is that Proposition No. 3 covered a multitude of items which the Administration hoped to get approved as some 80 per cent of the money was proposed for college and university construction. No one questions the need for additional college and university construction although serious arguments occur over whether the construction should be done on a pay-as-you-go basis or through bonded indebtedness.

Possible Changes

At any rate, the Administration has a bear by the tail. Undoubtedly, attempts will be made to force the Administration to balance its budget without recourse to use of the bond funds even if a bond issue for state construction is resubmitted. Attempts will be made, observers say, as well to force the Administration to separate the university and college construction bond proposal from that of other state construction, making the latter more difficult of passage.

Another problem is that the electorate may not take kindly to the Administration resubmitting in November bond proposals already killed in June. Voters might get the idea that the Administration is saying the voters weren't smart enough to know what they were doing the first time around.

So for a few days or so, give or take a few days, it won't only be the weather which is hot in Sacramento while the lawmakers are in session. A few political thermometers will be registering high, too.

Be Fair With Our Visitors

A letter sent to the president of the Chamber of Commerce, and permission given by the writer, Stephen A. Compas, for its publication last week under the "Letters to the Editor" column, brought much comment from citizens and merchants alike over the past week end.

In making our comments on the letter, and the pros and cons of the numerous, "standing violations" and the citations given therefore, we are going to set aside the fact, that we too are members of the club, and received our initiation on the very first day we ever glimpsed the sidewalks of Sierra Madre.

In a City situated as Sierra Madre, beautiful hills and grades, parking of automobiles and vehicles is a dangerous situation, this we cannot deny, and we feel absolutely sure that any driver of such vehicles would go all the way to see that he was in order. It is the desire of all of us to protect the lives and the property of our fellow individuals, and most of us know the general rules of good driving to accomplish this general purpose, but as strangers, or newcomers, many of us are not aware of the various ordinances of the city, nor are many of us acquainted with or have the ability to ascertain a three percent grade or any grade.

Now we do not care to discuss the contents of Mr. Compas' letter as to the truth of the accusations made therein, but we do definitely say more tolerance could and should be used by the City Police Department, especially so when it is an out of town motorist and a visitor to our city.

Now wouldn't it be a great act of brotherly love, (and good for business too) if it were possible for the Police Department to have what is more commonly known as "warning citations." When the officer finds a violation, he easily notes by the registration on the steering column whether the car is owned and is being driven by a visitor or stranger to our city. Instead of the citation that they now use, which in part states, "you have violated Ordinance No. 000, 3 percent grade, report at the Municipal Court at 10:00 on a specified date, or else." The officer would place the following "Warning Citation — Welcome to our City — We have an Ordinance No. 0000, which states that wheels of any vehicle must be turned to the curb when parked on a grade of 3 percent or more. We ask your cooperation while you are enjoying your visit in Sierra Madre."

It is our feeling that this would leave a very friendly feeling to any visitor of our city, certainly they would not hesitate to shop with our local merchants, because their first impression of a city is their first contact, and a citation, makes every merchant and resident of our city at the top of his well known list, where a warning citation would work in reverse.

It is our further feeling, that visitors and strangers should be given half a chance to be good motorists and drivers, wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if the city would put up signs which stated that this area was above the 3 percent grade and necessitated turning the wheels to the curb, I am sure very few citations would be issued.

After all, citations are issued, not for the money the city receives from them, but to protect the life and property of the people in the incorporated limits, it is my impression that the Police Department would indeed be happy if they never had to issue a citation, protection is their job and we are sure that they are dedicated to this achievement.

Honor to Ed-E. Herwig

For more than nine score years I have been the banner of hope and freedom for generation after generation of Americans. Born amid the first flames of America's fight for freedom, I am the symbol of a country that has grown from a little group of thirteen colonies to a united nation of fifty sovereign states. Planted firmly on the high pinnacle of American Faith my gently fluttering folds have proved an inspiration to untold millions. Men have followed me into battle with unwavering courage. They have looked upon me as a symbol of national unity. They have prayed that they and their fellow citizens might continue to enjoy the life, liberty and pursuit of happiness for which I stand. So long as men love liberty more than life itself; so long as they treasure the priceless privileges bought with the blood of this Nation's forefathers; so long as the principles of truth, justice and charity for all remain deeply rooted in human hearts, I shall continue to be the enduring banner of the United States of America. I Am Old Glory!

Yes, I am old Glory, and I am looking for a spot on Kersting square. Ed-E. Herwig, my devoted champion fought with untiring efforts that I might be there soon. In honor to a man who worked so hard for the City of Sierra Madre and its people cannot we complete this task in the week ahead.

As Ed walked out of the door this past week he was short but $400.00 in making this great dream of his come to full reality — let's give it a push over the top — Send in those dollars to the Don Jackson-Sierra Madre News Flag Fund, and say thank you to a man who had one idea "That the people of Sierra Madre would be represented, that no wrong could come to them without due and fair warning — Send, or bring it in we will greet you with an Ed-E. Herwig smile and give you his thanks.

Biblical Scholar To Preach

Dr. William L. Halladay, professor of religion at Elmhurst College in Illinois, will be in the pulpit of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church this Sunday, July 15. Dr. Halladay, who did his major studies in the Old Testament at Leyden University, Holland, will preach on the topic, "What Good is the Old Testament?" His text will be taken from Amos 3:1-8.

Prior to his appointment at Elmhurst College, Dr. Halladay was Campus Minister at the University of Colorado in Boulder, and minister at Angels Camp and Murphys in Calaveras County. He is a graduate of the Pacific School of Religion.

A coffee hour honoring Dr. Halladay will follow the service. Both morning worship and church school classes are at ten o'clock during the summer.

Activity Clubs In Full Swing

The two summer activity clubs available to the youth of the community and Bethany Church are in full swing. The "Seven Up" club for junior high young people will be participating in games at the church this coming Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Al Leeming and Mr. and Mrs. Avery Higgins will be hosting the activity at the church.

The "Upper Ten" club (for high school and college) enjoyed fun at the church softball game in Pasadena last Saturday night. Some similar activity will take place this week. The youth of the area are invited to participate in these experiences at any time. The young people meet at the church at 8:45, the "Seven Up" on Friday evenings and the "Upper Ten" usually on Tuesday night.

Watchtower Convention To Open July 13

James W. Brown, spokesman for Jehovah's Witnesses in the local area, released lapel badges to the local delegates.

These unique badges will be worn by the thousands of Watchtower delegates who are arriving in Pomona for the three-day "Courageous Ministers District Assembly." They easily identify all by name and home town in California, Arizona, nine other states and Canada. The badge will also advertise the public talk to be held on Sunday.

Mr. Brown stated, "The highlight of the assembly will be the special Bible talk Sunday, July 15, at 3 p.m., 'Take Courage—God's Kingdom Is at Hand.' 70,000 handbills will be distributed (10,000 in Spanish) inviting the public to the Pomona Fairgrounds. The Witnesses will also use information placards in the downtown streets of Pomona advertising the public talk."

A huge banner announcing this main lecture, measuring 3' high and 40' wide, will be displayed in front of the Kingdom Hall at 1546 S. Garey Ave., Pomona.

Over 11,000 are expected to attend the convention to hear the talks and to see the attractive platform which has been built by hundreds of volunteer workers. The speaker's platform will be a center of attention with its huge floral and shrubbery display. Glistening pools of water with a fountain in the center showering cascades of water into an azure spray will decorate each side and the front of the platform.

Dominating the speaker's platform will be a golden-colored crown, which in a figurative way represents Christ's reign as the King with authority and as the most "courageous Minister" who ever preached the Kingdom message. At night, a jewel-like effect will be created by an arrangement of electric lights focusing colorfully on the moving parts of the display.

The convention will be officially opened on Friday, July 13, at 2:30 p.m., by V. G. Johnson, who will stress the convention theme in his

Evangelistic Services For Bethany Church

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre announces that special evangelistic services will be held at the church beginning on Sunday morning, July 22, and continuing nightly through the week until the closing rally on Friday, the 27th.

The evangelist for this week of meetings is the Rev. Joe Blinco, Billy Graham's associate. Mr. Blinco was born in England and received his higher education at Cliff's College in London. He entered the Methodist ministry in 1940 and subsequently served churches in West England and in Southampton and London. After visiting America for seven successive years, the Rev. Blinco is now living this side of the Atlantic in Oklahoma City. His visits to America were for the express purpose of assisting Billy Graham in his crusades conducted since 1953.

During January of 1958 Mr. Blinco participated in the Caribbean Crusade, holding a campaign in Trinidad which attracted thousands nightly. In 1959 he conducted city-wide effort to reach the church, New Zealand and Adelaide, Australia. These were assessed by local religious leaders as the most impressive evangelistic mission in the history of these communities, with attendance of more than 15,000 many nights. In the early part of 1960 Mr. Blinco held successful campaigns in conjunction with the Billy Graham African Crusade.

In each of the American Crusades, Mr. Blinco has attracted widespread attention by virtue of his radio and television appearances, in addition to his regular preaching assignments. His keen wit, incisive thought and marked devotion have made him a special favorite with students groups and in informal home gatherings. This acclaim in America is akin to that which has greeted his evangelistic work in his native England during recent years. When not with Billy Graham, Mr. Blinco has his own evangelistic crusades. Such is the nature of the meeting which he will be having with Bethany Church during the last week in July.

Dr. Robert Schaper, pastor of the host church, is especially anxious that everyone take this opportunity to hear this outstanding man. Special morning meetings for men will take place every day at 8:15 a.m. Other special meetings will take place during the course of the week. A special crusade choir is being formed under the direction of Margaret Schaper, church music director.

Of special significance is the great closing rally in which many churches in the Pasadena area will be participating. "This series of meetings is truly a community-wide crusade in Christ-united with the message of Christ," Dr. Schaper said.

Rev. Joe Blinco

Services will begin nightly at 7:30 o'clock. Services on Sunday, July 22, will be at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Bethany Church Sunday Services

Bethany Church of Sierra Madre will be holding its evening services in the Sierra Madre City Park during the month of July. The services will begin at 7 o'clock. This coming Sunday evening Dr. Schaper will preach on the subject, "The Rich Young Ruler."

This summer innovation in the church schedule promises to be an outstanding event in the life of the church. Friends and members of the congregation are urged to attend these outdoor meetings.

Rickman-Bobbitt Wedding Held In San Bernardino June 9

Baskets of pink and white floral arrangements and tall white tapers flanked the altar of First Christian Church in San Bernardino for the wedding of Miss Opal M. Rickman and Gary M. Bobbitt, who exchanged vows June 9.

Bill Jolly, minister of First Christian Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony, witnessed by 75 guests.

Wedding music was offered by Miss Barbara Dobb, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Marjorie Holtzendorf.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, asked her sister, Mrs. Douglas Oliver, to attend her at matron of honor, while Miss Karen Bobbitt, young niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl.

J. Russell Bobbitt Jr. stood with his brother as best man and the guests were seated by Donald Boyce and James Ellerly, long-time friends of the bridegroom.

The former Miss Rickman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Rickman of Sierra Madre. Opal lived in Sierra Madre 16 years, attending grammar school. She was graduated from Wilson Junior High School, Pasadena High School, attended Pasadena City College and is a former employee of the Superior Oil Co. of Los Angeles.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ila Jean Bobbitt, 609 25th St. and J. Russell Bobbitt, 3371 Broadmoor Blvd., both in San Bernardino. He is a graduate of San Bernardino High School and California College of Mortuary Science at Los Angeles and is now employed by Stephens and Bobbitt Funeral Home in San Bernardino, which was founded by his grandfather, the late James D. Bobbitt, in 1921.

Behind the Scenes in Business

By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK — Leasing has reached the big time as a billion-dollar-a-year industry. In the past 20 years, automobile leasing alone has increased its share of the business automobile market from 1 per cent to 25 per cent, and it is still growing.

Several factors have caused the boom. Biggest by far has been the needs of industry in the past decade for additional working capital. By using leased fleets many firms have eliminated costly company-owned fleets and freed large sums of capital for other purposes.

Leasing by companies who find it more economical to use, rather than own, equipment has been a key to the industry's growth. And the individual rent-a-car market, another form of leasing, has become a convenient factor used more and more by salesmen, traveling businessmen and tourists.

PRESENTLY increasing at an estimated $200 million a year rate, leasing has not been without its problems. Competition is fierce, and is causing profits to be forced down.

And the lessors face something of a gamble, since in setting up rental payments for vehicles and equipment they must estimate the state of the used car market several years in advance. If the used market is depressed at resale time, the lessors, in many cases, must take a loss. Also, truck leasing has been slow in developing.

Even so, most industry spokesmen expect the industry to continue to flourish. They estimate that by 1970 from one-third to one-half of the automobiles used by business will be under leasing plans.

THINGS TO COME — A New York firm recently marketed a stinging shampoo for children; the shampoo makes extra-thick lather which youngsters can mold into various shapes, the maker claims.

An electronic air cleaner that filters up to 99 per cent of airborne impurities has been developed; the 28-pound unit can be used in any home, and moved as easily as a suitcase, according to the manufacturer.

A children's hat maker has introduced a new hat with a transparent pocket on the front in which children, using an alphabet supplied with the hat, can "personalize" their chapaus by inserting names in the pocket.

BITS O' BUSINESS — A New England college recently announced plans to give trading stamps to alumni who contribute to the school.

The new U.S. travel program, aimed at promoting tourism of United States by foreign visitors, has succeeded in boosting tourism about 20 per cent thus far this year, an industry report indicates.

Plant and equipment spending for the third quarter of the fiscal year is expected to reach $37.7 billion, up $3 billion from the same period last year, the government reports.

S. M. Gets $49,555.92

Motor vehicle license fees amounting to $29,957,092 were apportioned among cities and counties throughout the State during the closing days of the 1961-62 fiscal year, State Controller Alan Cranston reported today.

Cranston explained that it was the third apportionment of the year and brought to $123,578,653 the total amount distributed among cities and counties from this source during the year. The total apportionment for the 1960-61 fiscal year was $119,003,304.

The money is allocated on a population basis, half the total going to the cities and half to the counties.

The population of all cities, as estimated by the Department of Finance, was 11,964,738, an increase of 524,861 from the previous year.

Sierra Madre population was listed at 10,250 and the June apportionment from this fund was $49,555.92.

Building Figures

Lagging figures during May and June have cut into the building figures for the first six months of 1962 in Sierra Madre, though the overall still is larger than in the corresponding figure for 1961, according to Boyd Smith and Rosalie Moore of Building and License Office.

Total for the first six months of 1962 is $1,397,032, compared to $1,355,526 for the corresponding months in 1961. This is a gain of $42,506.

June's total of $104,845 compared to $91,300 for June, 1961, a decrease of $286,455.

Letter to the Editor

400 W. Montecito Ave.
Sierra Madre, Calif.,
July 7, 1962

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Evans: Welcome to our lovely city and I do hope you will spend many happy years in Sierra Madre. I am very sorry to hear Mr. Herwig had to sell his very fine newspaper. All the citizens, I know, wish him renewed health and vigor.

I do hope you will print the enclosed letter as there has been no publicity on this side of the question. The "Don Jackson Proposal" is such a radical change that I feel it should be called to the attention of the residents and your readers. I do appreciate this courtesy.

Thank you,
Sincerely yours,
—Kathleen P. Shadforth.

Dear Editor:

The purpose of zoning is to set apart various sections of the city for designated uses, applying different regulations to each. A zoning system creates, protects and accentuates the individuality of each district. Zoning also gives stability to land values by preventing the intrusion of one type building into the territory of others. Zoning aims are to secure a measure of orderliness in a city, thus preventing a "hodgepodge" area.

The "Don Jackson Committee Report" has requested that Sierra Madre Blvd. from Lima St. to Park Ave. be reclassified from a well-developed R-P zone to C-1 zone. There are no compelling reasons for any zoning amendment which are substantially related to the public welfare and necessity. Sierra Madre created a MASTER PLAN in 1955, at the cost of approximately $5,000, and if the plan is not adhered to, prospective purchasers of property will have a strong basis for doubting the stability of the Municipal Government. Allowing a change would be a flagrant example of "SPOT ZONING," because it would create an isolated district zone. This connotes "SPECIAL PRIVILEGES" and the benefits are so lopsidedly in favor of a small number of people.

This proposal fails to provide the customary "BUFFER ZONE" between a C-1 and R-1 district and, needless to say, would be detrimental to the value of surrounding property. The "Don Jackson Report" states the city needs more tax dollars. A plan such as this would not increase sales of merchants. At the time of this merely divide the existing sales among more merchants.

At the time of this writing twenty-five (25) local merchants have signed a petition against the new zone and many landowners of this affected area have signed a petition in protest, because they all feel this change is not for the welfare of our town.

It is possible to find adequate sites in districts permitting such use. It is surprising to see on the MASTER PLAN map much C-1 property that is not being utilized. There are empty stores downtown and the extension of Suffolk Ave. will help in solving some of the parking problems of the downtown area.

The proposed addition to the business area follows the "STRIP" concept. This is a somewhat outmoded approach to downtown business expansion whether large city or the suburb. "STRIP" method causes the existing retailers to suffer and they fall into a category of the less desirable. Modern city planning is being directed toward the block concept, wherein "MALLS" or the parkway type of accessibility is offered. Sierra Madre has an ideal area for such development as proposed potential C-1 in the MASTER PLAN in the Windsor Lane area adjacent to an existing city parking lot. Baldwin Ave. and Sierra Madre Blvd. is the HUB of the town and not the area near Park Ave., or the Library zone.

If the proposed reclassification is allowed, the Planning Commission and the City Council would indeed show bad faith to those homeowners who purchased their homes in Sierra Madre in the belief it is primarily a residential town.

Very sincerely yours,
—KATHLEEN PULLING SHADFORTH.

College ? ?

Balls of Fire! The Hod Carriers Union has spent over $16,620.20 for college education for some of its members—and they send these cement carriers to Harvard. Now if that doesn't top the cake—a Harvard graduate carrying hod to the bricklayers. Still, this probably accounts for the good relations this union has in the labor relations department. . . . Now I'm wondering which union sends its members to Yale.

Hollywood Gold Cup To Be Run Saturday

Hollywood Park's current thoroughbred racing season hits its highest spot Saturday when the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup, featuring some of the nation's finest handicap performers, is run over the mile and one-quarter route at the Inglewood track.

Each of the Gold Cup's 22 runnings has drawn a power-packed field and its list of past winners reads like a who's who of the turf with such champions as Seabiscuit, Kayay II, Chaledon, Noor, Citation, Two Lea, Swaps, Round Table, Gallant Man and Hildale.

On hand to contest the twenty-third edition of "the race of champions," as the Hollywood Gold Cup has become known, is an outstanding collection of stakes stars including Prove It, already winner of two Hollywood 50-granders this season, the Inglewood and American Handicaps; Olden Times, star of the recent Santa Anita meeting and also a Hollywood Park stakes winner this year; T.V. Lark, biggest money-winning California-bred winner of all-time and top grass course horse of 1961; Cadiz, who took the $116,200 Californian early in the Inglewood meet, and Windy Sands, who showed his ability to go the rugged Gold Cup distance in his recent victory in the Cortez Handicap.

Harple, a four-time winner at Hollywood Park and a close-up third in the American Handicap to Prove It and Windy Sands; Sea Orbit, who finished a fast-closing second to Prove It in the Inglewood; Typhoon 2nd, a top star in Irish and English racing before being imported to the U.S., and Grey Eagle, runner up in the Hollywood Gold Cup last year and second to Windy Sands in the Cortez, are other strong contenders for the Gold Cup, one of America's richest races for which $102,100 goes to the winner.

Kelso, "horse of the year" in 1960 and '61, and Carry Back, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner last year, have also been nominated for the Gold Cup by their eastern owners and there is a possibility that one of these may be flown out for the big race.
